A person is seen from the side, looking at a large, vibrant, abstract artwork. The artwork features a dense pattern of red, orange, and yellow shapes, possibly flowers or leaves, set against a dark background. The person is wearing a dark jacket and a white cap. The scene is dimly lit, with the primary light source being the artwork itself.

James Earl Ray, a.k.a. "Gambler" James Earl Ray, was born in Jackson, Mississippi, on May 19, 1928. He was a member of the Black Panther Party and was involved in the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. in 1968. Ray was convicted of the murder and sentenced to 99 years in prison. He was later released and fled to London, where he was eventually captured and returned to the United States. Ray was executed by hanging in the United States on April 14, 1971.

Discussion: Theoretical literature and empirical research have shown that the relationship between the two variables is complex. The findings are consistent with the literature.
